Job Description

Title:	Financial Capabilities Counselor Property Tax Foreclosure Prevention	Department:	Program Operations
Reports To:	Financial Counselor	FLSA:	Non-Exempt
Supervises:	None	Updated:	November 15, 2018

General Summary

Under the supervision and direction of the CACS Financial Literacy program's Financial Counselor provides family support services to individuals accessing services through the Service Center(s) to promote individual and family independence.

This position focuses on (but may not be limited to) providing financial counseling and advocacy/referral services to eligible persons facing Property Tax Foreclosure in the assigned Service Center(s). Requires the ability to establish and maintain positive working relationships with County Treasurer officials and staff.

Essential Functions

1. Specifically assigned to assist local households facing Property Tax Foreclosure.
2. Determines eligibility and assists participants with the complexities related to Property Tax Foreclosure and assists them with applying for needed services. This may include assisting with enrollment in and follow-up with the Step Forward Michigan program, where applicable.
3. Works with participants and the County Treasurer's Office(s) to create a reasonable household budget and an acceptable repayment plan.
4. Provides individualized one-on-one financial counseling sessions (including both initial and follow-up sessions) to assist participants in achieving their established goals.
5. Assists individuals in the selection of educational enrichment activities to comply with program requirements, if/where applicable.
6. Conducts credit repair and money management workshops utilizing Agency approved training materials.
7. Provides family support services to individuals seeking services through the assigned Service Center(s). Services include needs assessment, direct and referral services, advocacy and follow-up to assist individuals in meeting basic needs.
8. Provides participants with community resource information and assists with accessing services for which they are eligible. Links participants with service providers, employers, and other resources designed to meet individual needs and improve quality of life.
9. Informs participants about the Weatherization program and completes the intake/screening assessment for those services.
10. Maintains up-to-date participant files, including assessment, direct and referral services, follow-up and other participant activities.
11. Ensures that required participant data in the DBA FACS PRO system is accurate and completed in a timely manner for all participants and maintains an accurate account of all services.
12. Ensures confidentiality of all participant information and records at all times.
13. Works cooperatively as part of the Service Center Delivery team to address the needs of the low income population and to meet Project objectives.
14. Serves as a role model to guide others along the self-sufficiency continuum.
15. Assists with special projects upon request.
